

ANNOUNCING THE

23rd Chesapeake - Potomac
Invitational Bonspiel

March 3-5, 2006

National Capitol Curling Center

Laurel, MD.

*Open to Curlers from the Chesapeake and Potomac
Curling Clubs*

The Chesapeake – Potomac Invitational Bonspiel (aka: Meltdown) was begun in 1983 as a competition between the Potomac Curling Club and the Chesapeake Curling Club. At the time of founding, Potomac was playing on rented hockey ice, and the newly established Chesapeake Curling Club had dedicated curling ice. The two clubs jointly hosted the original bonspiel. Since that time, the clubs have alternated the hosting of the event.

Entry ($160 per team) includes:

Three game guarantee, Snacks Friday night, Continental Breakfast and Lunch Saturday and Sunday, and Dinner at the club Saturday night.

Make Check Payable to: Potomac Curling Club

Send entry to: Barry Nichols
